PRODUCTION CALENDAR

Vol. 3.

January 1944

No. 4.

This issue is devoted almost exclusively to a list of play titles now in our library..please retain this copy for future reference. Because the list crowds our bulletin pages, we ask the indulgence of those members who sent us items which must be banked for February. To work, and a Happy New Year!

DATE FOR MURDER IN A NUNNERY

Samuel French forecasts a date of March 1st for publication of play copies of "Murder in a Nunnery," the dramatization by Emmet Lavery of Eric Shepard's novel which so many of you have been awaiting. Realizing that a postponement of the definite selection of your spring production until March may hamper your publicity and other pre-rehearsal preparations, we have secured their promise to supply us with galley proof copies of the script.

The galley proofs will be available to Library Members for reading purposes only after January 15.

Play copies will contain production notes and suggestions prepared by Mr. Lavery.

JUNIOR MISS - RESTRICTED RELEASE

The Chodorov-Fields comedy, envy of most high school groups during its prolonged New York run, is now released to amateurs in certain sections. Permission for production and for publicity in connection with production must be secured from Dramatists Play Service, 6 East 39th Street, New York, 16, N.Y.

"Junior Miss" calls for 6 important "f" parts, 11 "m" of which 2 are non-speaking, 2 with only six lines apiece, and 6 with small parts.

MISSION DRAMA CONTEST

Catholic Students Mission Crusade, Shattue Ave., Cincinnati, 26, Ohio, offers three prizes ($125, $50, and $25) for best play manuscripts submitted by April 10, 1944. The theme of all entries must be related to missionary activity.

For further information, write Catholic Students Mission Crusade or NCTC.

ANOTHER OBERAMMERGAU

A permanent Passion Play Company has been organized with the approval of the Bishop of Paterson, Most Rev. T. H. McLaughlin, S.T.D., and 16 productions in Passaic County, N.J. are already scheduled for the coming Lenten season.

In the new telling of the old drama, suspense is keyed to the fulfillment of our Mother's promise to St. Dismas, made when Mary was an exile in Egypt with the Christ Child and Joseph.

The Company is making careful preparations to assure its audiences a truly fine dramatic and spiritual experience.

WHAT IS CATHOLIC THEATRE?

Among the excellent monthly bulletins published by our member groups (and the Christmas numbers are especially inviting) is the Catholic Theatre Guild of Pittsburgh's "Curtain Call." For its release of Rev. Edward G. Joyce's first article in a series devoted to Catholic Theatre and Catholic Plays, we believe the Guild's December issue would be of interest to a wider audience.

Father Joyce investigates the contrary positions of religious and secular themes, and his conclusions aid our straight thinking when we stumble over 'what?' and 'why?'

Has your Play Reading Committee one common viewpoint on what constitutes a Catholic play? Is your Catholic Theater Group Catholic in membership or in theater production? Must we wait until victory for an exchange of opinions and spur to thinking that comes with NCTC Convention discussion?

The following list includes play copies now in our library and available immediately to Library Members for reading purposes. As titles are added to the library, we shall publish them in subsequent issues. This is not intended as a recommendation of all titles included, nor do we intend an arbitrary division between high school and adult theater. Your knowledge of the capacity of your group and its audience will direct your choice. If we may be of help to you in making suggestions, please call upon us. Beginning with College-Community group:-
